Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness, where your fathers put me to the test and saw my works for forty years. Therefore I was provoked with that generation, and said, 'They always go astray in their heart; they have not known my ways.' As I swore in my wrath, 'They shall not enter my rest.'" Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today," that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we have come to share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion." For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief.

TELL THEM YOU SAW IT IN THE TRADER

Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified." Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?" And Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself." And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, "Save yourselves from this crooked generation." So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls. And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. And awe came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. And all who believed were together and had all things in common. And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need. And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved.

YOUR LOCAL, AFFORDABLE, ADVERTISING SOLUTION

Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom! Give ear to the teaching of our God, you people of Gomorrah!

“What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices? says the LORD; I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams and the fat of well-fed beasts; I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of goats. “When you come to appear before me, who has required of you this trampling of my courts? Bring no more vain offerings; incense is an abomination to me. New moon and Sabbath and the calling of convocations— I cannot endure iniquity and solemn assembly. Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hates; they have become a burden to me; I am weary of bearing them. When you spread out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I will not listen; your hands are full of blood. Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your deeds from before my eyes; cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice, correct oppression; bring justice to the fatherless, plead the widow's cause. “Come now, let us reason together, says the LORD: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool. If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be eaten by the sword; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

Then Moses answered, "But behold, they will not believe me or listen to my voice, for they will say, 'The LORD did not appear to you.'" The LORD said to him, "What is that in your hand?" He said, "A staff." And he said, "Throw it on the ground." So he threw it on the ground, and it became a serpent, and Moses ran from it. But the LORD said to Moses, "Put out your hand and catch it by the tail"—so he put out his hand and caught it, and it became a staff in his hand—"that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you."

TELL THEM YOU SAW IT IN THE TRADER

Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying, "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations." Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, I do not know how to speak, for I am only a youth." But the LORD said to me, "Do not say, 'I am only a youth'; for to all to whom I send you, you shall go, and whatever I command you, you shall speak. Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, declares the LORD." Then the LORD put out his hand and touched my mouth. And the LORD said to me, "Behold, I have put my words in your mouth. See, I have set you this day over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant."

THE ADVENTURES OF ROOSTER AND BANJO

BANJO AND ROOSTER RIDE THE BIG WATERSLIDES

The children were ready for more adventure at the water park. Pumpkin and Sunshine had gone down all the slides in the toddler area and decided they wanted to try a bigger slide. Everyone headed for the slide Aunt Nana said would be a good warmup. Just a high, twisting, fun slide with no surprises.

At the end of the slide, the boys declared themselves ready for the one beside it, which was made into a tube to block out the light. "We'll go together," Rooster suggested. "Then we'll know we can do it alone."

"Good idea," Banjo agreed, grabbing a double tube and hurrying toward the stairs.

Sunshine and Pumpkin followed the boys, with Mama right behind, while Daffodil stayed close to Aunt Nana. "I liked the slide we went on," Daffodil said. "And the lazy river."

"There's not a thing wrong with enjoying the more peaceful things in life," Aunt Nana said. "Shall we go on the same slide? Separately or together?"

"Same slide, and we'll go together," Daffodil decided. "I'll take care of you."

"Perfect," Aunt Nana agreed. "I need a little extra help sometimes. I didn't think I was going to be able to get up last time."

Soon, they were all at the bottom again. And again. Climbing the stairs became hard for Aunt Nana, so Pumpkin shared a tube with Daffodil, Mama and Sunshine went together, and the boys went separately. It was fun for Aunt Nana to watch for them and try to get video of the splashdown.

"Can we do the slides over there?" Banjo asked after a few turns.

Aunt Nana looked where the boy pointed and said, "Sounds like fun." So the group went to another set of tall, twisting slides. They decided that one side was fast and the other was fun.

Daffodil opted for fun, along with Mama and Pumpkin. Luckily, all three could ride on one big tube together. The boys went on the fast one together, just to see how it was. Sunshine wanted to try the fast one, but she was a little afraid of it. Aunt Nana said, "I'll go with you, Sunshine."

"On the fast one?" Rooster exclaimed. "You're not scared?"

"I've gone on much scarier rides," Aunt Nana said, smiling. "Just because I'm old doesn't mean I break easily."

The boys went zipping down the fast slide, screaming in excitement. The larger group of ladies got on the big innertube to go gently down the fun slide. Then Sunshine and Aunt Nana got on a double tube to go down the fast slide. Aunt Nana could hear Sunshine making a noise, and thought she might be afraid. Then Aunt Nana laughed. The child was giggling. "This is fun, right?" Aunt Nana called over the sound of rushing water.

"FUN!" Sunshine screamed.

At the bottom, Daffodil was waiting to tell them about her version of fun and Sunshine wanted to tell about hers. The boys checked in with Mama and hurried to get back in line.

Eventually, the group went to the slide Daffodil called "the racing slide." She had been afraid to try it the last time she had visited, but she wanted to today. As long as Aunt Nana was in the lane beside her.

They all went up another long flight of stairs and lined up at the top of a slide Rooster said was straight. Banjo disagreed. It only curved up and down, not side to side, but it wasn't really straight.

Aunt Nana said, "You can slide or fuss, but not both," and the boys took their places, each determined to win.

The lifeguard blew her whistle, and the race was on. Aunt Nana was the heaviest, so she went the furthest and the fastest, so she won. The boys were amazed. Aunt Nana thought she would explain velocity and acceleration later.

Aunt Nana grabbed her mat and was walking off the slide when she realized Pumpkin was still far behind. She was so small, she hadn't slid as far as the others. Suddenly, they saw another rider start down in the same lane Pumpkin was in.

The lifeguard had overlooked Pumpkin! Aunt Nana dropped her mat and started running, yelling to Pumpkin to jump up and out of the way. Pumpkin just stared, not understanding. Aunt Nana grabbed the child in one hand, the mat in the other, and jumped into the next lane just before the young man would have collided into them.

"We need a better system," Aunt Nana told the lifeguard who was at the bottom of the slide as she helped Pumpkin exit the ride. The man nodded, recognizing the mistake, so Aunt Nana left it alone.

Mama had missed the drama while caring for the other children, and she came running to hug her baby. "You may need to skip this ride until next year," she suggested. Pumpkin nodded gravely, still a little scared.

"Thank you," Mama said to Aunt Nana, who shrugged. She would have done the exact same thing for a stranger's child.

"I'm going to sit by the wave pool and watch y'all have fun on the lazy river," Aunt Nana declared. "I've had enough excitement for one day."
